

Due to precautions surrounding COVID-19, large group activities will not be held this month. Activities staff will continue to plan one-on-one activities and small group activities to help residents stay active while maintaining social distancing. These activities will be planned on a week-to-week basis. Follow us on Facebook to see pictures and receive updates. Thank you so much for your understanding and support!